

Role of social and national stage of basic education in raising awareness of tourism in Jordan

Dr. Mohammad Amayreh

Abstract

Study of Education, wrote the role of social and national stage of basic education in raising awareness of tourism in Jordan / analytical study

The study aims to clarify the role of books Alambges mentioned in the awareness of tourism in Jordan, particularly the city of Petra, as the study found the results very important that the number of the concepts of education in the tourist books Alambges mentioned the concept of distributed 383 books Alambges and number of twenty books and included most of the tourist sites, historical and archaeological in Jordan, these concepts were scattered in those books Mtvetotp rates ranged from 19.5% to 1.5%, while ancient city of Petra has stated Alambges wrote a total of 31 books on the concept of distributed classes 2,3,4,5,6,7,and 10 representing about 8% of the total concepts contained in the books Alambges. It also emerged from the study a number of recommendations to review the most important concepts in the distribution of tourism so as to include all textbooks and close rates in each row, as well as diversity in the concepts of tourism said to include all stages Aadrasep

Bait Al Anbat