

Urban and organizational expansion and challenges of the infrastructure in the

Petra region

Eng. Yahai Hasanat

Abstract

The regulatory process in the developed countries was considered one of the most important processes to be seriously tackled. The reason for this is due to the regulatory process which is considered as a shared with the wheel of life on the one hand and on the other hand, the increase of human population and urban growth with the necessary infrastructure.

This type of challenges doesn't take place only in the city of Petra; on the contrary it takes place in most regions of the world. Nevertheless, some Arab countries took this matter seriously and launched comprehensive long-term organizational studies, taking into account the specificity of place including the industrial zones, agricultural, archaeological and others...

Petra is one of the new Seven Wonders of the World. It is a dream of life for many people in this world to come and visit. In spite of all this, Petra still needs to maintain its treasures as much as possible.
